

Texas Libraries: Planning and Communicating the Library Message and Services under COVID-19 – Resources Shared in Chat

More information about FEMA funds available through TDEM:
<https://tdem.texas.gov/covid-19/#1584998707036-c4e58f25-6498>

More information about NEH CARES Act funding:
<https://www.neh.gov/program/neh-cares-cultural-organizations>

Here is the link to the regional check-ins page: <https://www.tsl.texas.gov/ldn/regionalcheckins>

Here are the links to the TexShare resources, these are also available in the PDF handouts:
<https://www.ebsco.com/covid-19-resources>
<https://www.gale.com/covid19support>
<https://www.proquest.com/products-services/related/Coronavirus-Outbreak-Authoritative-Resources.html>

Here is some information about the E-Read Texas program: <https://www.tsl.texas.gov/ldn/ebooks>

A message from Russlene Waukechon: Biblioboard content is available through the TexShare portal. It provides online access to ebooks from DPL. Biblioboard has an app to use and 21 curated collections. If librarians have more questions please send an email to texshare@tsl.texas.gov

Here's a link to the Library Developments blog, we'll post any updates here:
<https://www.tsl.texas.gov/ld/librarydevelopments/>

Here's a link to an OSHA report on preparing workplaces for COVID-19:
<https://www.osha.gov/Publications/OSHA3990.pdf>

Here is a link for more information about the Disability Information Resource Center:
<https://www.tsl.texas.gov/tbp/dirc.html>

The DIRC can also be reached at tbp.services@tsl.texas.gov or 1-800-252-9605

Fair Use COVID deadline response from Liz Philippi, TSLAC School Resource Program Coordinator: I am on the webinar and got the question - basically the June 30th still holds. For additional questions, please email Liz at lphilippi@tsl.texas.gov

Annual Report changes question response from Valicia Greenwood: You have until July 31 to make any changes. For additional Annual Report questions, please email Valicia at vgreenwood@tsl.texas.gov.